

Margo Bank

Myriam VIAUD - General Secretary, Margo Bank

In 2018, Myriam Viaud was appointed General Secretary of Margo Bank, where she oversees the strategic management of Margo Bank's legal department. She also manages relationships with investors and governing bodies.

She began her career in 1995 at BNP where across several successive roles, she was instrumental in defining and implementing their legal strategy. From 1995 to 2009, she served as counsel for litigation, then as counsel to the Parisian banking network, and finally as counsel to the BNP Paribas Private Banking and Wealth Management division.

In 2009, Myriam Viaud joined Rothschild & Cie Banque¹ as senior counsel where most notably, she developed the legal aspects of their lending activity. She was appointed Deputy Head of Legal in 2015.

Myriam Viaud, 47, earned her graduate degree in private law (master II en droit privé) from l'Université Paris X Nanterre.

1 - Rothschild Martin Maurel as of 2017